Quotes that deal with sports and life!

by Dave Pikel

"Humility is one of the things that we talk with our team about being a core value of our program. It's easy to take ourselves too seriously."

"There are great opportunities for teaching when things don't go your way!"

-Brad Stevens – Butler Bulldogs Head Men's Basketball Coach (2nd place in NCAA in 2010 Tournament!). Radio Interview – program "Chris Fabry Live!" www.moodyradio.org/brd ProgramDetail.aspx?id=54481

"If you start making excuses to cut out the things that are important because of urgent circumstances, it will become a habit, and you'll start cutting them out regularly."

"Complementing our strengths with the strengths of others is a recipe for achieving great things together... Complement your strengths with the strengths of others: Remember, not only were you created for community, but others were too. You were not created to do everything by yourself."

-Tony Dungy – Former Head Football Coach for Indianapolis Colts (also coached with other teams). Book – The Mentor Leader (Secrets to Building People and Teams that Win Consistently)

By Tony Dungy with Nathan Whitaker, Tyndale House Publ. – page 58, then page 64-65.

"A good coach doesn't just tell a player who they are at that moment, they show their players who they can be and put them in positions to succeed and excel in what they're good at."

-Kristin Drabyn – College of the Holy Cross Women's Basketball Assistant Coach Sharing The Victory Magazine – December 2010 (Page 18) www.sharingthevictory.com

"...you're not gonna be able to run as fast as the ball. We tell 'em on offense to pass the ball, don't try and dribble."

-Jason Buckley – Oswego East High School Men's Varsity Basketball Coach Beacon News (newspaper) – Sunday, January 16, 2011, page 45.
